DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What significant change have you dealt with recently? (Aside from the worldwide changes from COVID-19) Was that change something you chose, or something that was out of your control?
2. Has it been true for you that change involves something dying, something new coming out of it, and things never being the same? Share an example of that in your life.
3. Read Luke 24:13-32. Jesus says that it was "necessary" (24:26) for Him to die. Could you look at the "little deaths" that have come through change in your life and say "that had to happen"? Why or why not?
4. What is one question about God that constantly comes to mind for you—what could the group do to help you either answer or process that question?
5. With all of the changes in our world (and our church) in the last year or two, how would you say your faith as impacted your ability to deal with those?
6. Imagine having a conversation in the near future with someone older than you, someone further down the road in their faith. What might you want to ask
